

From: Troy Daley
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 10:42am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I think the proposed settlement is a bad idea.

Microsoft has long been a thorn in the side of independent achievement.

While I use their products regularly, I find that I use them because no other company can produce an equivalent or better product without being pounded into the ground by MS or bought out. I would like to see their practices change, it would be better for us and better for them in the long run.

Troy Daley